protection under the Act is set out at paragraph 23 of the plaint.

32. It is stated that since these works are released or published in India, they are entitled to protection under Sections 13(1), 13(2), and 13(5) of the Act. Plaintiffs investigator has collected evidence to show that the Plaintiffs' Original Content continues to be made available on Defendant No. 42's website as late as 14.09.2025

38. It is further contended that despite sending the legal notices and calling upon the concerned Defendants to cease engaging in their infringing activities, the Defendants continue to infringe the rights of the Plaintiffs' original content. It is also contended that access to Defendant Nos. 8, 9, 12, 16, 24, 38, 50, and 65 has also been disabled in Australia details of which are given at paragraph 45 of the plaint. It is also stated that Defendant domains with identical names but with different top-level domains have been blocked in different jurisdictions, e.g., Defendant No. 2 'hindilinks4u.doctor' with identical names but with different top-level domains 'hindilinks4u.nl' has been blocked in Australia.

Further the hosting, streaming, reproducing, distributing, making available to the public, and/or communicating to the public of the Original Content, or facilitating the same, without authorization of the Plaintiffs amounts to violation of the Plaintiff's copyright work, protected under the Copyright Act, 1957. In support of his contentions reliance has also been placed on the decision of this court in CS(COMM) 724/2017 dated 11.04.2019, UTV Software
